Oyster Bay Baptist Church

Celebrating Historical Anniversary

Oyster Bay Baptist Church recently celebrated it's 163rd Anniversary in Gulf Shores, where Jerry Peebles serves as pastor. How encouraging it is to witness a church who has been serving the Lord faithfully for so many generations. Jerry Peebles is a much respected pastor in our county and continues to lead the church in the fulfillment of the Great Commission. He is also doing a great job in leading our Camp Baldwin Committee. We celebrate what God continues to do through the ministry of Oyster Bay Baptist Church.

Welcoming:

We also want to welcome the new pastor at First Baptist Church, Silverhill, Jason Rothe and his family. They come to us from Loganville, Georgia. Please pray for them as they settle into the Silverhill Community.

Remembrance:

Rev. Ed and his wife, Sarah Lyrene will surely be missed. They both tragically lost their lives in a traffic accident on May 16, 2018. Ed Lyrene served faithfully for many years as a pastor in our association. Pastor Jeff Copeland, First Baptist Church, Robertsdale and I had the honor of attending their funeral in the Tuscaloosa area. They touched many lives in our association and will be greatly missed. Although we are sad at their leaving us we rejoice that they are with the Lord Jesus in Heaven.

Questions you may have and more...

How should "small" churches do things differently from large churches?
Do we need to have the same internal controls in place?
