DISASTER RELIEF TRAINING

For decades Southern Baptists have ministered to thousands of people through our disaster relief efforts. Southern Baptists have had an impact on our nation by helping others in times of disaster. Our disaster relief work has been noted and recognized to the nation by media outlets.

Our Baldwin Baptist Disaster Relief Team has been mobilized several times this year. Steve Brooks is our coordinator.

Those who serve through disaster relief are heroes and do so out of a love for God and people. If you would like to be trained in an area of disaster relief here are a couple of upcoming opportunities.

The Mobile Baptist Association, in conjunction with the Alabama Baptist Disaster Relief Ministry, will offer Disaster Relief Training on February 15-16, 2019 at Cottage Hill Baptist Church in Mobile.

Classes include:

- Chainsaw
- Cleanup/Recovery/Mud out
- Communication (requires ham radio license)
- Shower/Laundry
- Mass Feeding

*Registration is now online at sbdr.org.

February 8 is the deadline to register. Direct questions to disasterrelief@mobilebaptists.org or call Carolyn Battle at 251-643-3053

Another DR training in Baldwin County will be at 3 Circle Church on March 14-16. More details to come.
