SPIRITUAL PASSION FOR GOD

I begin my seventh year as Director of Missions this month. I am so very grateful to the God who called me here and for the constant acts of Christian kindness toward me and my family. You make it a joy to serve here in the Baldwin Baptist Association.

My prayer is that we all would grow in spiritual passion in our love, devotion, worship and service to God.

I recently spoke at a Church Revitalization Conference at Southside Baptist Church in Andalusia. I preached on Sunday morning and spoke on Sunday thru Wednesday evening on what the Bible teaches about obediently living for God and loving Him more. Southside Baptist Church is one that loves the Lord and people. There is an excitement about what God is doing. This was evident in the good attendance of youth and adults even on Monday and Tuesday night.

May this be a time when our hearts ignite with passion for God. May we be ever more committed to Christ's Great Commission to take the gospel to all of Baldwin County and the world.

May God find us faithful as we join together on Saturday morning, October 5, at 10:00 a.m. at First Baptist Church, Loxley for a Taste of Missions. We will worship and commit ourselves to Christ's Mission. We will begin an intensive time of prayer for our missionaries.

In Christ,
Rick Ellison
