WHAT AN INCREDIBLE EXPERIENCE

Thanks to all who participated in the 105th Annual Gathering of Baldwin Baptists. Thanks to Pastor Louis Johnson and First Baptist Church, Loxley for hosting us this year.

The attendance was great but the worship, fellowship and participation was even greater. What a wonderful time of worship and praise and committing ourselves to Christ's mission around the world.

I was amazed at the variety of foods from around the world at "The Taste of Missions." The food choices were absolutely incredible. Thanks to all who prepared food dishes from many countries where we have missionaries.

Monty Patton Southern Baptist Send City Missionary from Phoenix, Arizona shared in his message that Phoenix is the fastest growing city in North America that it is estimated that 9 out of 10 people are lost. Please pray for our partnership with Phoenix in 2020 as we assist two church plants there.

There was such a positive spirit at our annual gathering. That's what happens when God's people come into His very presence to worship and glorify Him.
