GOD'S PEOPLE CALLED TO BE FAITHFUL

In times of uncertainty, God continues to call His people to be faithful. During these times, when gathering together at the same location for worship and meeting times have been suspended, God calls His people to be faithful because it is His church. His mission through our churches continues.

HOW CAN YOU BE FAITHFUL TO GOD IN SUPPORTING YOUR CHURCH?

PRAYER -Continual and fervent prayer for your church, pastor, leaders, fellow members, our community, county, state and country.

WORSHIP- Join together for worship and the pastors message through the internet or however this is provided through your church.

GROWING IN OUR WALK WITH GOD-Using this period at home to spend more time with God in prayer and Bible study. There are also online Bible studies for people of all ages.

FINANCIAL GIVING- Because we love God, our faithful commitment to His work and support of the church must continue. God loves a cheerful giver even in times of adversity. Let us not become complacent and take our giving for granted. Our financial stewardship to God by giving through our church is needed more than ever.

MINISTRY TO OTHERS- It may need to be through a telephone call but let us continue to pray for and encourage one another.

MISSIONS- God continues to call us to support His mission work not only here in Baldwin County but also around the world. Let us not grow weary in well doing. Let us continue with a great commitment to Christ's Great Commission.

Prayerfully,
Rick Ellison

Gulf Area Resort Ministry

In the midst of the transition between Snowbird Season and Spring Break we have seen the Resort Community face changes along with the rest of the world. There are still some visitors in many locations and we are offering a weekly Camper's Devotion online in an effort to share with them. I'm excited by the number of people we've been able to share with in this way so far!

Please pray for us going forward!
