GRATEFUL FOR OUR FAITHFUL PASTORS

The Covid-19 Virus has propelled many of us into a more digital age when people are distanced perhaps more than ever before. I am extremely grateful for the faithful preaching of God's Word by our pastors by internet, Facebook, radio, technologies and other ways.

I recently attended a drive-in service at First Baptist Church, Gulf Shores. People stayed in their vehicles and could see those leading the service from a stage in the parking lot. They could listen and participate in the worship music and listen to the message in their vehicle by FM radio or through Facebook. Pastor Lawrence Phipps preached a powerful message about the cross of Christ.

Everything was organized, well done and it was truly a worship experience. It was good to be at the same area with other believers, although being confined to our vehicles. First Baptist Gulf Shores had three services that morning.

Let's continue to pray for the end to this terrible virus and healing for our land. Let's pray that when our church buildings reopen that scores of people will return.

Please pray for your pastor as he prepares and delivers God's Word each week.

Rick Ellison
