Will You Pray With Us?

I have a small plaque on my desk that reads, "PRAY FIRST." This plaque is special to me because I received it from the Billy Graham Library while visiting there in Charlotte, North Carolina. But even more special is the fact that the plaque has Philippians 4:6 engraved on it. This verse reminds us to pray instead of just worrying. This verse also tells us that we are to pray about everything. That God wants us to tell Him what we need. That we are to thank Him for all He has done for us as we experience His peace.

There are many needs for prayer in our association. Please take time to pray for these needs.

1. That our commitment to supporting local missions through our association and world wide missions through the Cooperative Program would remain strong.
  2. That God would bless our churches as some begin the return to places of worship and that God would bless those who must remain at home for health reasons and precautions.
  3. For our pastors who are ministering in unusual and sometimes difficult times.
  4. God's call of a pastor for our new Hispanic, Spanish speaking church.
  5. That God would touch the lives of many of all ages through our Gulf Resort Ministry and Camp Baldwin.
  6. Please pray for the 106th Gathering of Baldwin Baptists on Sunday Evening, October 18, that we would be energized more than ever before to God's world wide mission.
- In prayer, Rick Ellison
