

OCTOBER IS PASTOR APPRECIATION MONTH

We are blessed in the Baldwin Baptist Association to have great spirit-filled men of God, with servant's hearts serving as pastors in our association. They faithfully bring God's Word, minister to us and bless us in many ways.

I want to encourage you to share a word of appreciation to your pastor, individually and collectively as a church.

Certainly pray consistently for your pastor and his family.

If your church has other staff members, express your appreciation to them as well.

Take this month to show your appreciation, including recognizing them in a worship service, giving them a gift or providing a dinner in their honor.

There are many wonderful ways to share your appreciation.

Be generous. Be kind. Be thoughtful. Be creative. Most of all, show your generous appreciation.
