NEW HISPANIC MINISTRY TO BEGIN

On November 7, a brand new Spanish speaking, Hispanic ministry will begin. As we form our core group they will become a mission church in our association and in time a constituted church. There will be worship each Sunday at 6:00 pm and Bible study on Thursday evenings at 6:00 pm. The group will meet at Daphne Baptist Church, located at 1515 6th Street in Daphne. There will also be a Bible study at First Baptist Church, Robertsedale on Sunday mornings.

Pastor Ramon Vielza will be leading worship and Bible studies. He will be serving in our association part time each week and also planting a Hispanic church in Mobile. We are blessed with a good leadership team as we begin this new work. We plan to plant future Spanish speaking Bible studies in other communities in our association in the days to come. Please pray that God will move in a mighty way and that many will be reached for Christ.

BAPTIST ASSOCIATION WEEK OF PRAYER

This week, October 17-24, is the Week of Prayer for Baptist Associations in Alabama. Please pray for the churches and missions of our association, as well as, our Pastors and church leaders. Please pray for our staff and ministries, including Camp Baldwin and the Gulf Area Resort Ministries. Please also pray for all of our volunteer ministry leaders. God has blessed our association in so many ways. Let us give God our praise of Thanksgiving.
