GRATEFUL TO BE A SOUTHERN BAPTIST

I began attending a Southern Baptist Church in Indiana when I was a baby in the nursery. I'm grateful for Sunday School teachers who taught me about Jesus as I grew up. It was in that church, at age 7, that I trusted Jesus as my Lord and Savior and was baptized. I believe that Southern Baptists have one of the greatest Missions Ministries to the world in the history of Christianity.

I have noticed through each decade that Southern Baptists have had their various challenges, but this has never deterred us from keeping our focus on the Great Commission. There have always been critics and those who would try to discourage us from doing God's gospel commission to the world. I am very grateful for the 47,000 churches who partner together through the Southern Baptist Convention to have a worldwide impact for Christ. We are in a spiritual war with Satan and he certainly will do everything to discourage us from sharing the gospel.

Among our goals as Southern Baptists, one is to "increase the total number of fully funded missionaries by 500 and add 6,000 new SBC churches over the next five years."

What a spirit filled and encouraging time we had at our 107th annual gathering. We were highly encouraged as we focused on winning North America for Christ. Thanks to Camp Baldwin and all involved in making this a special day.

I am also very encouraged by the great cooperation and partnership among the over 60 churches in Baldwin Baptist Association. Let's continue with that kind of Godly spirit as we work together to do God's will in Baldwin County. I love serving you as your Director of Missions and can't wait to see what God is going to do next.

We are happy to announce we are partnering with Alabama WMU and the MS River Ministry to provide backpacks to children in the Golden Meadow, LA area, which was hard hit by hurricane Ida. Our hope is that each of our churches will fill just one backpack and bring to the office by December 10.

If your church is able to pack one or more backpacks, contact Angie Estes at 251-945-5112 or office@baldwinbaptist.com with the gender and age group you have chosen. She will send you more information. This church specifically asked that a fleece blanket be included in each backpack.

If you would like to participate in the distribution on December 18, let us know.

Be in prayer as the children and their families are presented with the plan of salvation on that day.
