THE 108TH ANNUAL GATHERING
BALDWIN BAPTIST ASSOCIATION
SATURDAY MORNING—OCTOBER 15
9:30 am - 11:30 am
FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH, BAY MINETTE
THEME: "BECAUSE THEY HAVE NEVER HEARD"

LUNCH WILL BE SERVED AT 11:30 A.M.
To eat at your table and fellowship or to take it with you, for those that have attended "The Gathering Celebration."

What does God have for Baldwin Baptists in the future as we serve Him? This past year we focused on North American Missions. Throughout the year we will continue to pray for and support North American missions. At our annual gathering this year we will focus on the work that God has for us to do in Baldwin County. We will focus on reaching the multitudes who are moving to our county and on existing and new ministries that are needed to fulfill Christ's Great Commission.

We will also focus particularly on the people groups around the world who never or barely hear the gospel. We will have an intensive time of prayer for God to open doors and protect our missionaries in dangerous places as they share the gospel.

Here are some elements of our 108th gathering.

A TIME OF PRAISE AND WORSHIP
A DRAMATIC TESTIMONY AND MESSAGE FROM ONE
OF OUR INTERNATIONAL MISSIONARIES

Also there will be.....

- Some Associational business that will help us reach and minister to Baldwin County.
- A video presentation of current BBA Ministries and what God is doing through them.
- An update on what God is doing in our expanding Spanish speaking Hispanic Ministry.
- We will have an interactive time of brainstorming potential new BBA ministries.
- An incredible prayer experience as we seek God's intervention in opening doors for people groups who never hear the gospel.
- A brief video presentation about what God is doing through our missions work (especially highly unreached areas) around the world.

Please pray for and be a part of this important and exciting moment as we look to the future and seek to do God's will.
