THE CRITICAL IMPORTANCE OF SUNDAY SCHOOL AND SMALL GROUPS

It is encouraging to see Sunday School and Small Groups meeting again on a consistent basis after Covid. Many are coming back and meeting again. That fellowship is being restored.

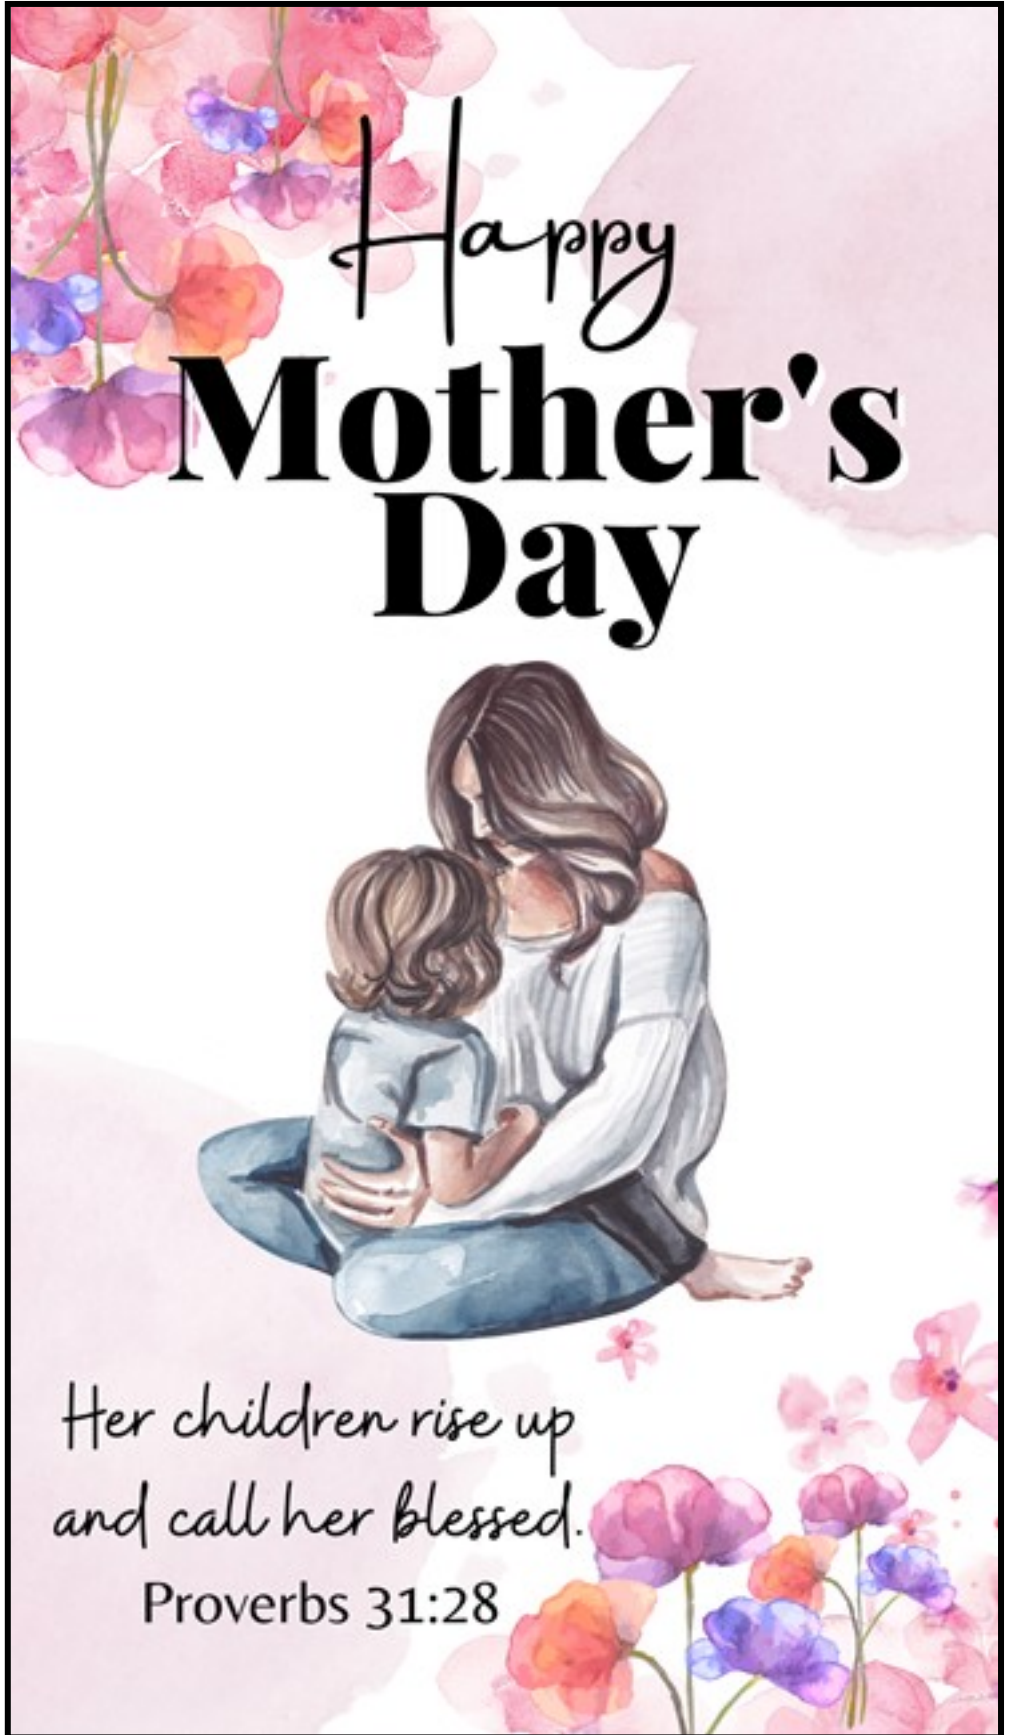

Whether your church has Sunday School or a Small Groups structure both are vitally important to a churches health, growth and future. These groups and classes give an opportunity to teach God's Word at every age level. It's the place where people are cared for as we minister and pray for the needs of others. These are places where new people can become involved and become a part of the church. These are places where the gospel can be shared. These are places of service and growing as a disciple. Sunday School and Small Groups are the glue that keeps the church strong and together.

I had the honor for ten years of serving churches in Alabama and other states and helping them organize and build strong Sunday Schools/ Small Groups. Serving through the State Board of Missions I was even able to help some growing churches develop two Sunday Schools. I also built a strong Small Group structure while serving in the local church. Please call on me at the Associational office if you need help or a consultation with your Sunday School or Small Group organization.

It is of no cost to your church and a ministry of our association.

Prayerfully,

Rick Ellison
