108TH ANNUAL GATHERING OF BALDWIN BAPTISTS
THANK YOU FOR MAKING THIS A MEMORABLE DAY

What a great time we had together at the 108th annual gathering of Baldwin Baptists. There was a great attendance as well as a wonderful spirit. How exciting it was to focus on missions here in Baldwin County as well as around the world. The time we spent in prayer identifying unreached people groups was especially meaningful. It was a tremendous time of fellowship as well as a delicious meal.

First Baptist Church of Bay Minette is always the perfect host. Thanks to Pastor Chip Starnes, staff, greeters, kitchen crew and others who volunteered to make this such a special morning. Thanks to Corey Stringer for leading us in dynamic praise and worship. Let me also express my special thanks to IMB Missionary Jamison Work who gave us a great challenge in his message.

Thanks to all who set up displays that gave us a visual of Great Commission ministries here and around the world. The video by power productions also gave us a visual of just some of the ministries through our association.

A special thanks to our associational staff who planned and worked for months to make this time special. Thanks to John Pratt for his outstanding leadership as our moderator these past two years and to Andy McClellan for being our Vice Moderator. Josh Vance was elected as your new moderator and Brad Baxter as Vice Moderator. Effective budgets were also approved for the association and Camp Baldwin for 2023.

Our theme was "Because They Have Never Heard". Please continue to pray diligently for our faithfulness in sharing the gospel in Baldwin County and supporting our missionaries around the world.
