GOD'S GIFTS AT CHRISTMAS

One of my favorite Christmases was at the home of my grandparents when I was a child. Their two story white frame home was built around 1900 with high ceilings and there had been fireplaces in each room. In Indiana there was often snow at that time of year.

There was a gigantic Christmas tree full of big lights and presents in front of a stairway. A number of us cousins sat in front of the Christmas tree in anticipation

What are some of your reflections about special Christmases in your life? As we look back we are reminded of times that God has blessed us because of His great love. He actually showers us everyday with his blessings. Of course, God's greatest love was sending His Son Jesus to be born at Bethlehem for our salvation.

As we celebrate Christmas it is a time to reflect on God's goodness to us. It is also a time to commit ourselves to serving Him through our local church, especially through Christ's great command to carry the gospel to the world.
