APPRECIATION TO OUR LEADERS
AS WE BEGIN 2023

As I look back over this past year, I am grateful for all the leaders who serve Christ in our association. I am grateful for our staff in the associational office and the staff at Camp Baldwin. I am grateful for our associational ministry leaders and all those who serve so faithfully with them. I am also thankful for all those who serve on our committees and in many other ways.

I am very grateful for all the pastors in our association who faithfully preach and teach the word of God and give spiritual leadership. I am thankful for church leaders and all those who give support and service through their local church.

We are very fortunate to have volunteers come to our camp, resort areas and other places to volunteer. They come to our association to serve from many different states.

With this great army of leaders serving Christ in 2023, let's pray that we make an impact in our County with the gospel. Let's pray that many lives will be touched by Jesus as we serve Him.

Director of Missions

CHURCH TAX CONFERENCE

You can register online @ alsbom.org/event/church-tax-conference
There are multiple dates to choose from, so make sure to register for the January 11, 2023 event.

It was a very cold and wet distribution day at Gulf Coast Baptist Church in Golden Meadow, Louisiana. The children were so excited to open their Backpacks and discover the goodness that God had provided through our churches here in Baldwin County. Their families expressed feelings of gratitude to all who provided these gifts for their children.

We would like to take this time to say a special "THANK YOU" to everyone that contributed towards this wonderful event! Barnwell Baptist, Daphne Baptist, First Baptist Loxley and Spanish Fort First Baptist Church for providing 110 Backpacks to be distributed this year! Donations from Spanish Trail Baptist Church that provided 50 blankets to put in the backpacks. The ladies of Bethel Baptist that donated toys. Bubba and Paula Bosarge who donated cookies and goodies to handout to the children.

Christmas Blessings,
Angie Estes
