PRAYING FOR OUR MISSIONARIES

I am reminded today that we support Missionaries all around the world and that many are serving in very dangerous places. Many are serving in places where Christians are persecuted. Many risk their lives on a daily basis for the cause of Christ.

I am also reminded that many Missionaries who serve Internationally and in North America have given up everything to follow God's call. These are families who have totally committed their lives to serve in lands where God has called them. They need and deserve our prayers and financial support as you give through your local church.

There are many issues that can divert our attention from the Great Commission and support of our Missionaries. We have a great and mighty God who is at work all over the world. Let's join Him in what he is doing and make it a priority to pray for and support our Missionaries.

Rick Ellison
Director of Missions
